The meeting began at 6.00 PM and the Chair welcomed all.

18/110 Apologies

Apologies were received from TW.

18/111 Declarations of interest or requests for dispensation.

MG declared an interest in Item 18/118.B.ii and .iii (PA18/08627 and PA18/05947).

KBi declared an interest in Item 18/118.B.iii (PA18/05947).

18/112 Public Session

A R Stephenson spoke about the Neighbourhood Plan.

- Draft NP sent to Cornwall Council for screening to see if SEA (Strategic Environmental Assessment) and HRA (Habitats Regulation Assessment) were required and these are not required.
- Cornwall Council made a number of comments most of which were minor. including "The draft is substantially complete and well presented".
- Nick, Roger and I have been through all the comments and made alterations for where they have improved the draft NP.
- We will be finalising the draft on Tues, with our consultant Tony Lee, and then this along with supporting documentation will be sent to Cornwall Council to forward to the independent assessor.
- This also goes on the Parish website and sent by the Clerk to those people who wanted to be kept up to date.
- We then await the independent assessor's comments and make any alterations. This will then be the final document.
- This then gets sent back to Cornwall Council in order for them to organise a referendum. If things go smoothly, I would hope for a referendum, late winter/early spring. If approved, this then gets adopted as Luxulyan's Neighbourhood Plan.
- The Neighbourhood Plan has looked at the problems encountered by Crantock PC regarding the overruling of its Neighbourhood Plan by Cornwall Council and the Committee believes Luxulyan's Plan will avoid those problems.

The Steering Committee wishes to highlight:

- That one of the main themes of the draft NP is affordable housing, and therefore the Committee suggests to the PC that every new residential planning application should be tested on this basis.

- The Steering Committee is also concerned that often each planning application is looked at individually. It suggests that strategic view is taken when an individual planning application is presented as well as looking at the detail of individual plan.
- Luxulyan Parish Council should support, and participate in, a Cornwall-wide conference on housing, as proposed by the North Cornwall Cluster Group.

R Stephenson left the meeting.

Item 18/118.B.ii. The Chair brought this item forward and MG left the chamber for the duration of the discussion. See the decision at that Item.

Item 18/118.B.iii was then discussed. MG remained outside the chamber and KBi also left the chamber for the duration of the discussion and vote. See the decision at that Item.

B The manager and assistant manager of Croft Farm Holiday Park explained the layout of the proposed permanent homes which would replace holiday caravans and pitches. Two residents also voiced their concerns about the placement of the permanent homes, which could overlook the other properties and the managers explained the discrepancies in the drawings of the proposed layout.

MG and KBi returned to the chamber to hear the result of the vote on Item 18/118.B.iii.

The remaining 4 members of the public left the meeting.

18/116 Reports

A Chair's Report. She attended the St Blazey, Fowey & Lostwithiel Community Network Panel Meeting where the new Community Network Highway Scheme is organised and voted on. Tomorrow she will meet with the Ward Member about the leats.

B Crime & Prevention. The Chair is Luxulyan's representative for the Police Councillor Advocate Scheme which is slowly being organised. See Item C for a way to retrieve crime figures for the area.

C Cllr Saunders' report to the Parish

Firstly in response to a particular planning application that Luxulyan Parish Council considered at the October mtg. which was for "Permission In Principle" (PIP) and which caused some degree of concern amongst the Councillor's present. I have followed up with CC Planning as promised. It would appear that Luxulyan are one of only two Parish Council's in Cornwall to have encountered these types of planning applications to date. CC Planning have been quick to respond to my request for further guidance and this week I was able to email your Clerk with a Briefing Note on Permission In Principle which will hopefully enable all Councillor's to consider these particular applications in a more informed way in future.

Back on the 15 October the Community Network Panel (CNP) for St Blazey, Luxulyan, Fowey & Lostwithiel, was given an update on all matters to do with local policing and anti-social behaviour. A representative of the Police & Crime Commissioner (PCC) was there together with Inspector Ed Gard of the St Austell Neighbourhood Policing Team and Helen Toms of CC's ASB Team and Zoe Wonnacott CC of Safer St Austell.

We heard amongst other things about an expansion of the recently trialled Tri Service Teams - good news for our locality, as two of these new teams will be based at Lostwithiel and St Dennis, providing invaluable additional resource to our Neighbourhood Policing team.

In respect of ASB, the message was clear – resource is focused where the police and ASB team understand there to be a problem, therefore residents troubled by crime of this sort must please always make a report to the police. They will respond should they see levels of reported ASB behaviour rising in any given area, and stress that they cannot respond to something they aren't aware of. I have attached a useful poster with contact details for the police – should residents encounter problems and delays with ringing 101 though, I would welcome the feedback. I have signed up to be a Councillor Advocate with the police for the Bugle Division area, which should provide me the opportunity to feedback matters of that sort and any other concerns that residents may have.

Residents and Parish Councillor's curious to understand better just what the recorded crime figures are for this area can look them up on the www.police.uk website. Click "Find your Neighbourhood". Luxulyan falls within the Fowey Lostwithiel grouping – but there is an interactive map that will allow you to view more precise locations.

At the Customer & Support Services Overview & Scrutiny Committee on the 23 October, we were reminded that the Council's Draft Budget for 2019/20 is out for public consultation. With savings of £70 million to be found I would urge residents to make their priorities for Council spending known by participating in the online survey accessible at www.cornwall.gov.uk/budget2018/

There is also an opportunity to attend a special cluster meeting of the Clays, St Austell & Fowey Lostwithiel CNP's at the ESAM building at West Carclaze on Monday 10th December at 7.30pm where we will hear a member of the Cabinet present on the draft budget consultation.

I might just add at this point that there is also a Clay Area CNP meeting which I will be Chairing this time, also at the ESAM and just prior to the above on the 10 Dec, starting at 6pm.

Also at CASSOSC on the 23rd we heard about Cornwall Council's planning and preparation for the inevitable changes that BREXIT will bring. Further information can be found at www.cornwall.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/brexit/

There is additional interesting reading too in the form of the New Frontiers document which highlights how CC are aiming to make the most of opportunities that BREXIT may present as well as find new sources of funding and Investment into the Duchy once the EU tap is turned off. www.cornwall.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/working-in-partnership/cornwall-and-isles-of-scilly-leadership-board/new-frontiers/

Lastly, it was interesting to note when I was at a planning training session at Cambourne earlier this week that there are moves afoot to restructure/reorganize the CC Planning Teams in what is being labelled a Localised Area Approach to Planning. I hope over the coming months to be able to expand on this further as more information becomes available.

D The Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group was reported on in the Public Session. See item 18/112.
